"Now Israel may say"

Text by William Whittingham

Harmonised by David Peebles

1. Now Is - ra - el may say, and that tru - ly, If that the Lord had
2. Now long a - go they had de - voured us all And swal - lowed quick for
3. The rag - ing streams most proud in roar - ing noise Had long a - go o'er - not our cause main - tained. If that the Lord had not our right sus - tained, ought that we could deem; Such was their rage, as we might well es - teem, whelmed us in the deep, But loved by God who doth us safe - ly keep

7

13

When all the world a - gainst us fu - rious - ly
And as the floods with might force do fall,
From bloo - dy teeth and their most cru - el voice,

17

Made their up - roars and said we should all die.
So had they now our life ev'n brought to thrall.
Which as a prey to eat us woud re - joice.

Original tenor begins on C.
