

Psalm 28

"Thou art, O Lord, my strength"

Text by Thomas Sternhold

Harmonised by David Peebles

1. Thou art, O Lord, my strength and stay, the suc - cour which I crave:
2. Re - pute not me a - mong the sort of wick - ed and per - vert,
3. For they re - gard no - thing God's works, his law, nor yet his lore:

7

Neg - lect me not lest I be like to them which go to grave,
That speak right fair un - to their friends and think full ill in heart.
There - fore will he them and their seed de - stroy for ev - er - more.

13

The voice of thy sup - pli - ant hear, that un - to ye doth Ac - cord - ing to their han - di - work, as they de - serve in -
To ren - der thanks un - to the Lord, how great a cause have cry: When I lift up my hands un - to thine ho - ly ark most high, deed, And af - ter their in - ven - ti - ons, let them re - ceive their mead.

I, My voice, my prayer, and my com - plaint, that heard so will - ing - ly.

Original tenor begins on D.
