

Psalm 78

"Attend my people to my law"

Text by Thomas Sternhold

Harmonised by David Peebles

1. At - tend my peo - ple to my law and to my words in - cline:
2. Be - cause we should not keep it close from them that should come after:
3. That they and their pos - ter - i - ty that were not sprung up though,

My mouth shall speak strange par - a - bles and sen - ten - ces di - vine: Which
Who should God's power to their race praise and all his works of wonder. To Should have the know - ledge of the law and teach their seed al - so. That we our - selves have heard and learned, ev'n of our fa - thers old, Ja - cob he com - mand - ment gave how Is - ra - el should live:

13

they might have the bet - ter hope in God that is a - bove:

18

And which for our in - struc - ti - on, our fa - thers have us told.
Wil - ling our fa - thers should the same un - to their child - ren give.
And not for - get to keep his laws and his pre - cepts in love.
