

Psalm 114

"When Israel by God's address"

Text William Kethe

Harmonised by David Peebles

1. When Is - ra - el by God's ad - dress, from Pha - roah's land was bent, And
2. The sea it saw, and sud - den - ly, as all a - mazed did see: The
3. What ailed thee, see, as all a - mazed so sud - den - ly to flee? Ye

* (Note in manuscript is a D.)

7

Ja - cob's house the stran - gers left, and in the same train went:
roar - ing streams of Jor - dan's flood re - coil - ed back - ward - ly.
rol - ling waves of Jor - dan's flood, why ran ye back - ward - ly?

12

In Ju - dah, God his glo - ry showed, his ho - li - ness most bright.
As rams a - fraid the moun - tains skipped, their strength did them for - sake:
Why shook ye hills as rams a - fraid? Why did you strength so shake?

18

So did the Is - rael - ites de - clare his king - dom, pow'r and might.
And as the sil - ly trem - bling lambs, their tops did beat and shake.
Why did your tops as trem - bling lambs, for fear qui - ver and quake?

* Note in manuscript is a D.