

Psalm 26

"Lord be my judge"

Text by John Hopkins

Harmonised by David Peebles

1. Lord be my judge for lo my way is up - right, just, and plain. In
2. I had no will to haunt or use, with men whose works are vain: The
3. My hands I wash and do pro - ceed in works that are up - right. Then

7

God my trust has been for aye, who shall me still sus - tain. Prove me, O com - pa - ny I did re - fuse of the de - ceit - ful train. I much ab - to thy al - tar I make speed, to of - fer there in sight. That I may 13

Lord, try thou my reins, my heart ex - a - mine each, horred the wick - ed sort, their deeds did I re - fuse,
speak and preach the praise that doth be - long to thee:

17

Since in my sight thy grace re - mains, thy truth I sue and seek,
To them would I not once re - sort, which hurt - ful things de - vise,
And so de - clare how won - drous ways thou hast been good to me.