

Psalm 37

"Grudge not to see the wicked"

Text by William Whittingham

Harmonised by David Peebles

1. Grudge not to see the wick - ed men in wealth to flour - ish still: Nor
2. Trust thou there - fore in God a - lone: to do well give thy mind: So
3. Cast both thy - self and thy af - fairs on God, with per - fect trust: And yet en - vy such as to ill have bent and set their will. For as green shalt thou have the land as thine and ther - fore food shalt find. In God set thou shall see with pa - ti - ence th'ef - fect both sure and just, Thy per - fect

grass and flour' - shing herbs are cut and w'ther a - way, So all thy heart's de - light, and look what thou would have, Or life and god - ly name he will clear as the light: So shall their great prOs - per - i - ty soon pass, fade and de - cay.

else can wish in all the world, thou need it not to crave.
that the sun, ev'n at noon days, shall not shine half so bright.
