Psalm 68
"Let God arise"

Text by Thomas Sternhold

Harmonised by Andrew Blackhall

1. Let God arise, and then his foes will turn themselves to flight:
2. But righteous me before the Lord shall heartily rejoice:
3. That same is he that is above, with in his holy place,

His enemies then will run abroad and scatter out of sight.
They shall be glad and merry all and cheerful in their voice.
That farther is of farther less and judge of widow's case.

as the fire doth melt the wax and wind blows smoke away, praise, sing praise unto the Lord, who rideth on the sky:

in the presence of the Lord the wicked shall decay.

* Original manuscript has an A instead.

Original tenor begins on F.
