

Psalm 86

"Lord, bow thine ear to my request"

Text by John Hopkins

Harmonised by David Peebles

1. Lord bow thine ear to my re - quest, and hear me by and by:
2. Thy mer - cy, Lord, on me ex - press, de - fend me eke with all:
3. For thou art good and boun - ti - ful, thy gifts of grace are free:

7

With griev - ous pain and grief op - pressed, full poor and weak am I.
For through the day I do not cease, on thee to cry and call.
And eke thy mer - cy plen - ti - ful, to all that call on thee.

12

Pre - serve my soul, be - cause my way, and do - ings ho - ly be:
Com - fort (O Lord) thy ser - vant's soul, that now with pain is pined:
O Lord like - wise when I do pray, re - gard and give an ear:

18

And save thy ser - vant, Lord I pray, that puts his trust in thee.
For un - to thee, Lord, I ex - tol and lift my soul and mind.
Mark well the words that I do say, and all my pray - ers hear.
